

BIZ IDEA Summit | Tuesday, February 21, 2012

9:30-2:15 pm | Ramada Inn & Convention Center, Kearney, NE

New this year, this youth entrepreneurship conference is focused on IDEAS (Innovation, Dialogue, Entrepreneurship, Action). It is targeted to high school aged student entrepreneurs or those interested in entrepreneurship.

What is this and why should we attend

A day intended to stimulate innovation and business ideas development, to engage in dialogue, to raise entrepreneurial action and to recognize distinctive visions, efforts, accomplishments and impacts of youth-led businesses in celebration of Entrepreneurship Week.

Who should attend

Students in 10th – 12th grades gather from across the state, particularly from rural areas. All youth are invited to attend, particularly those in business, innovation and entrepreneurship-related courses or those with such interests.

Registration Information

Up to 10 students per school may register along with faculty. The event is limited to the first 100 students registered. Complete and return BIZ IDEA Summit Registration Form with payment. Registration fee is just $15 per person (students, instructors and adult chaperones) through February 13th. Visit www.cfra.org/marketplace/idea for more information.

NOTE: Portable electronic devices (cell phones, tablets, ipads, etc.) ARE ENCOURAGED! Attendees will be asked to use their mobile devices for mobile voting functions as well as for creating audio and/or video segments during the day activities. We will have several computer stations set up for those that do not have their devices; however we hope that usage will be minimal. Multiple voting by one phone will be permissible (i.e. more than one student may enter their votes using the same phone). Students may also bring laptop computers if they wish to create PowerPoint presentations as part of the morning activity.
